Dear Customer:

Due to circumstances beyond our control, Struktol Company of America regrets to inform you that effective immediately and until further notice, we have expanded our Force Majeure declaration to additional products. The complete list of those products affected now includes the following:

TR121, TR131, TR141, TR151-95, TR151-40,

Unfortunately, a major supplier of materials necessary for these products experienced an unexpected fire that has impacted their ability to supply. At this point in time, we cannot estimate how long this interruption may last but assure you that we will continue to work to limit the impact. We apologize for the inconvenience this may cause and thank you for your patience and understanding. We will update you as we have news regarding any progress or developments related to this event.

Sincerely,

Ken L. Harp
